Mary Jane Warrenfeltz, 82, of Middletown, Maryland, passed away Wednesday, November 27, 2019, at Doey's House in Hagerstown, Maryland, with her loving family by her side in her final hours. She was married to Bernard L. "Lefty" Warrenfeltz for more than 60 years.

Born on November 7, 1937, in Frederick, Maryland, Mary was the daughter of the late Harry S. and Alma F. (Summers) Ramsburg. She was a member of Frederick High School's Class of 1955. Mary worked as a waitress at Duke's Truck Stop on Route 40 where she had the opportunity to meet one of her country music idols, Patsy Cline. She also worked at American Optical in Frederick. In 1960, Mary joined United Insurance Company of America in Frederick and Hagerstown, and retired after 40 years of service in 2000. Most recently, Mary attended church services at the Chapel at Fahrney Keedy Memorial Home and Village in Boonsboro, Maryland, where she had been residing since September 2019. She was a member of the AMVETS Valley Memorial Post 9 Auxiliary and Sacketts Fun Group. She enjoyed playing bingo, bowling, reading, Bible studies and listening to Christian and country music - but her greatest joy was spending time with her family.
