

Obituary

Born: Monday, December 21, 1953

Died: Sunday, October 10, 2021

Charles Edward Wolf, 67, of Middletown passed away peacefully Sunday October 10, 2021 at Frederick Health Hospital.

He was born December 21, 1953 in Frederick, MD, the middle child of Cyrus Wolf and Miriam Kepler Wolf.

Charlie was High School class president while excelling in band, track, and soccer. After graduating Frederick Community College with an Associates degree he moved to North Carolina where he shared his love of the outdoors as a youth camp counselor. Returning to Middletown, Maryland for a 10-year class reunion he met his wife of Jeanne Lutz, who he married in 1983. For the next 45 years, Charlie used his charismatic personality as a successful RV salesmen and manager. After his retirement in 2019 he enjoyed his passion of knife making, perfecting his craft and acting as VP of the William F. Moran Knife Foundation.

Charlie's greatest ability in life was the connection he could make with a complete stranger. Charlie's life was dedicated to supporting others and sharing his faith in everything he did. He was a devoted husband of 37 years. As a father, he was caring and always present. He helped coach his son's sports, planned cross-country family trips, and was encouraging every step of the way. As a grandfather, he was even better. He was always happy to teach, play, and support his grandchildren in whatever way was needed.

Charlie is survived by his wife Jeanne Wolf; brother, Dale Wolf; brother, Darrell Wolf; son, Chase Wolf; son, Nick Wolf; and grandchildren, Xander and Rowan Wolf. He was preceded in death by his parents Cyrus and Miriam.
